typically these "repeat" infections tend to occur when the person's immune system is starting to become a bit stressed.

they were sixth-graders at crystal lake middle school and told her "to drink bleach and die,"