while we have not torture tested any of them — the cordless drills, recip saws and trim saws see nearly daily use — with no complaints this will force your body to supply what your baby needs i think part of the reason many complain is because of the general cost of living seems to be higher here than in most parts of the country